EXPERIENCE SAXONY-ANHALT

Family day in the Altmark

© Staatskanzlei und Ministerium für Kultur Sachsen-Anhalt / Danny Kurz

Experiences, excitement and enjoyment in the wide open spaces of the Altmark: the idyllic countryside in the north of Saxony-Anhalt is just waiting to be explored. The historic Hanseatic cities are surrounded by woods and fields. Particular highlights are the eight cities in the Altmark that belonged to the Hanseatic League. They are spread throughout the region and still play an important part in the league today. The Altmark countryside can be discovered on foot, by bike or on horseback. Families can take part in a wide variety of leisure and cultural activities involving adventure and fun.

The main culinary delicacy of the Altmark is the Salzwedel “Baumkuchen” or tree cake. This sweet specialty is still made locally by individual bakers and in small factories. The perfect way to try this delicacy is in one of the many cafés in the region with a cup of coffee or tea.

MORNING: FAMILY MUSEUM WITH THE TROJAN HORSE

The Family Museum that forms part of the Winkelmann Museum in Stendal has a range of creative activities for the whole family, particularly during the vacation season. The museum site is home to the largest Trojan horse in the world, which is 15.6 meters high and 13 meters long. Children will be excited to explore the inside of the horse. From here they can look down over the town and inhabitants, who appear tiny from this high up.
