There are four UNESCO World Heritage experiences in Dessau-Roßlau: The Bauhaus and the Garden Kingdom of Dessau-Wörlitz UNESCO World Heritage sites are not far from one another and they are surrounded by the unspoiled countryside of the UNESCO Middle Elbe Biosphere Reserve. In addition, since 2016 a student's notes on Luther's Lecture on the Epistle to the Romans have been included in the UNESCO International Memory of the World Register. The notes are preserved in the archives of the University and State Library of Saxony-Anhalt.

Dessau-Roßlau also offers a variety of opportunities for getting outside and enjoying some exercise. There is plenty of space for outdoor activities in the city's many parks and the nearby countryside. A run around one of the UNESCO World Heritage sites or a kayak trip on the River Elbe are experiences not to be missed. Other bucket-list items for visitors to the city include a round of golf and a visit to the Zuckerturm climbing center.
