Anyone looking for relaxation should try a visit to the city's parks and green spaces. In addition to the Botanical Gardens, the Amtsgarten and Gimritzer Park, there is also Peißnitz Island in the River Saale, which is the perfect place to meet for open air sport, games and picnics.

A cycle ride along the Saale, a stroll through the inner city or a boat ride across the river – Halle offers a variety of experiences and has a wide range of activities for sport lovers. The green spaces in the city that is Handel's birthplace are the ideal locations for activities in the midst of the hustle and bustle of urban life. Other unique experiences include museum visits, special events and many other attractions. The comprehensive program for a one-day visit can be adapted depending on the weather and the visitors' preferences to make sure that they enjoy themselves to the full.

Special highlights include the Halloren Chocolate World of Experience, boat trips, cultural events, wellness offerings and the DB Museum for railway lovers.

MORNING: IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF HANDEL

There is plenty to discover in Halle, which is why an individual guided tour of the city makes the perfect start to the day. The Tourist Information Center in the “Marktschlösschen” offers tours and trips in several languages. Daily guided tours give an insight into life both now and in the past in the historic city that is Handel’s birthplace. Visitors can also find information about individual tours of the city at the Tourist Information Center. The Handel Memorial outside the doors of the “Marktschlösschen” welcomes guests to the city.
