EXPERIENCE SAXONY-ANHALT

The Harz Mountains. Simply magical.

Breathtaking landscapes, unique cultural activities and genuine adventure: The Harz region offers a variety of experiences at all times of year. The area has more than 8000 kilometers of hiking paths, which lead past the steep rocky cliffs in the valley of the River Bode and along the legendary Devil's Wall, for example. Then there is the unspoiled countryside in the valley of the River Selke and the unusual karst landscape in the south of the Harz region. The climb to the top of the Brocken mountain takes visitors to a height of 1141 meters.

The variety of cultural and historical treasures at the heart of the Harz region is also impressive. In the picturesque towns of Wernigerode and Quedlinburg with their half-timbered houses and many museums and galleries, visitors are transported back in time. Other historic sights include Wernigerode Castle, Falkenstein Castle, Drübeck Monastery and the former Harz mines.

Adrenalin junkies are certain to enjoy a visit to the Rappbode dam. Summer toboggan runs such as the "Harzbob" in Thale and the region's mountain bike trails and bike parks also offer fast-paced thrills. Underground adventures can be found in the many natural caves in the Harz region, including the Rübeland caves with their stalactites and stalagmites and the Heimkehle karst cave in the south of the area.

MORNING: CLIMBING THE BROCKEN MOUNTAIN

The Harz narrow gauge railway has 25 steam locomotives and is one of the last big steam adventures in the world. The locomotives are in daily use on a 140-kilometer network with a track width of only 1000 mm. The routes, which include the “Harzquerbahn”, “Selketalbahn” and “Brockenbahn”, offer an outstanding experience in the heart of Germany. Discover the natural landscapes and the culture of the region on our steam trains, one of the biggest attractions in Germany’s most northerly mountain range, the Harz.
